

Church League Needed, Declares Dr. H. E. Fosdick

"We Haven't Really Gone Bad During the War," He Declares, but Nation's Religion Should Be Unified

A league of churches is needed as much to-day as a league of nations," declared the Rev. Harry Emerson Fosdick last night in an address to the Protestant Teachers' Association at its third annual meeting, which was held in the Central Branch Y. W. C. A. Dr. Fosdick's address took the form of a strong plea for interdenominationalism in the Protestant churches.

"Denominations insistently stress the unimportant in religion and insistently obscure the important," said the speaker. "They are divided about everything that doesn't really matter, about things the man in the street knows nothing and which would not make him better if he did."

"In my work in the training camps I met men who had been reared on denominationalism, men who knew little of what Christianity really means, who knew nothing of its soul, but who knew much about the fringes of religion."

Expected Better Type

A better type of Christian must come out of this war. The type of Christian of the future must be a man of international sympathy, of wide vision; he must be interdenominational and must have a profound sense of personal responsibility."

Dr. Fosdick declared that denominations have been proved inadequate, and urged that the time was at hand when all Protestant creeds must make common cause.

No one's fidelity could be dispensed with, he said, and the education of boys and girls along broad Christian lines should begin while they were still young.

The speaker urged united support of the campaign in the fall, when 25,000,000 American soldiers and sailors will be in a common drive in which every one must find his place to help.

Have Not Been Bad

"We've not been bad," said the speaker in conclusion, "but we have been scattered, with our energies frittered. We have been lacking in unity. Now we must work together, for the world is in danger, and Protestantism in this city is in danger."

Lumber Fraud Charged Buffalo Dealers Sued by Lehigh Valley Railroad

BUFFALO, May 2.—Affidavits that Asa K. Silverthorne, wealthy Buffalo lumberman, told a foreman in the Lehigh Valley lumber yards that there would be shortages in lumber received by the railroad from his company and that he would pay $20 for each carload of lumber checked by him if the fraud was not disclosed, are included in the papers of a suit filed in the Federal Court to-day by the Lehigh Valley Railroad against Silverthorne, Silverthorne and his son, Frederick W. Silverthorne, and James W. McCourt, of the Shingle Mills, Selling Company, now are under Federal indictment charged with conspiracy.

$35,000 Verdict Set Aside

Soldier's Victory Over Railroad Denied by Court

The Appellate Division yesterday set aside a verdict for $35,000 which Harry Bauman, a private in the 47th Regiment, N. G. N. Y., obtained in the Supreme Court against the Norfolk & Western Railroad. Bauman, who had both his legs cut off by a train in a switchyard near Lynchburg, Va., where he was quartered, had to be carried into the courtroom every day that the trial was in progress. A jury gave Bauman $75,000, which Justice Dugro reduced to $35,000.

The Appellate Division points out that a railroad is not held to the same duty of vigilance in switchyards as it is upon public crossings.

Biggest Lumber Enterprise To Be Launched in Canada

VICTORIA, B. C.—What is undoubtedly the most gigantic lumber enterprise ever conceived, and a scheme that is fraught with tremendous possibilities in development of the British Columbia lumber industry, is about to be launched by a syndicate headed by Percy Furber, president of the Mexican Oil Company, of New York, and John Arbuthnot, financier, well known in this city. This syndicate will be known as the Furber Lumber Company, and the operations of the syndicate will be conducted on a colossal and world-wide scale.

Orders have already been placed with the syndicate by British interests to deliver 30,000,000 feet of lumber, which in the event of a satisfactory agreement being reached on purchase price with the sawmills and lumber manufacturers will be supplied by British Columbia mills.—Toronto Mail and Empire.

Two Prisoners Prevent Escape of Murderers

TRENTON, N. J., May 2.—Two Italian prisoners at the New Jersey state prison late this afternoon prevented the escape from that institution of three murderers and one prisoner serving thirty years for intent to kill. The Italians, whose names are withheld by Principal Keeper Mulhern, will be recommended to the Pardons Board for paroles.

The men who nearly gained their freedom were Charles Evans, of Essex County, who murdered a policeman and a citizen; Robert Sheridan, of Hudson County, convicted of assault with intent to kill; George Gardner, of Somerset County, serving from twenty to thirty years for murder; and Raymond Fisher, of Hudson County, convicted of murder in the second degree. Gardner, with Richard Hammock, killed a motor truck driver near Bound Brook some months ago.

The prisoners, while at work in the shops, managed to make a rope ladder, to which they fastened large hooks. Secreting the ladder beneath some rubbish they were instructed to carry from the prison to the yards, they threw the ladder, and the hooks caught on the top of the prison wall.

In a twinkling the men were scrambling up the wall, and were just about to step to freedom when the Italians, serving sentences for trivial offences, saw them and pulled the ladder down. Enraged at the interference with their escape, the four men pounced upon the Italians and nearly beat them into insensibility. The cries of the Italians were heard by James Shen, a tower guard, who drew his gun and sounded a general alarm. The four men were soon handcuffed and placed in cells.

Accuse 3 of Counterfeiting

Complete Outfit Taken in Raid by Treasury Officers

Treasury Department operatives yesterday raided the rooms of three Greeks in Sixth Avenue, near Thirty-eighth Street, and arrested the trio on a charge of counterfeiting. The prisoners described themselves as Louis Dianis, 26; Tom Sooner, 29, and George Lamas, 26. They were arraigned before United States Commissioner Hitchcock, and held in heavy bail for the Federal Grand Jury.

Raised banknotes, mutilated currency, inks, panchettes, punch dies and other paraphernalia were found in the rooms.

Three Alleged Reds Caught Men Held in Bomb Inquiry; Sought Senator Eyre

PHILADELPHIA, May 2.—Three Hungarians were arrested on suspicion to-day near the estate of State Senator T. Larry Eyre, in West Chester, one of those selected as victims by the dynamiters who sought to send their bombs by mail. The prisoners said they were Olah Mohoz, George Metele and Michael Magy, and that some one had sent them from Coatesville to find out just where Senator Eyre lived.

Agents of the Department of Justice went to West Chester as soon as the arrests were reported. The local police have been unable to discover parcels which the men are said to have been carrying when first seen, and can't find out whether they contained bombs or lunch. A negro woman called the attention of the police to the three strangers. She understood one of them to say in inquiring where Senator Eyre lived: "You know—the fellow whose house is to be blown up."

War Camouflage for Ships To Serve a Peace Purpose

Ship camouflage, an art hurriedly developed during the great war, may be retained permanently as a means of reducing the dangers of collisions between vessels. In war the camouflage sought a design that would puzzle German submarine commanders, but now they must seek the opposite extreme, a uniform design which will emphasize and accentuate the true course of the ship.

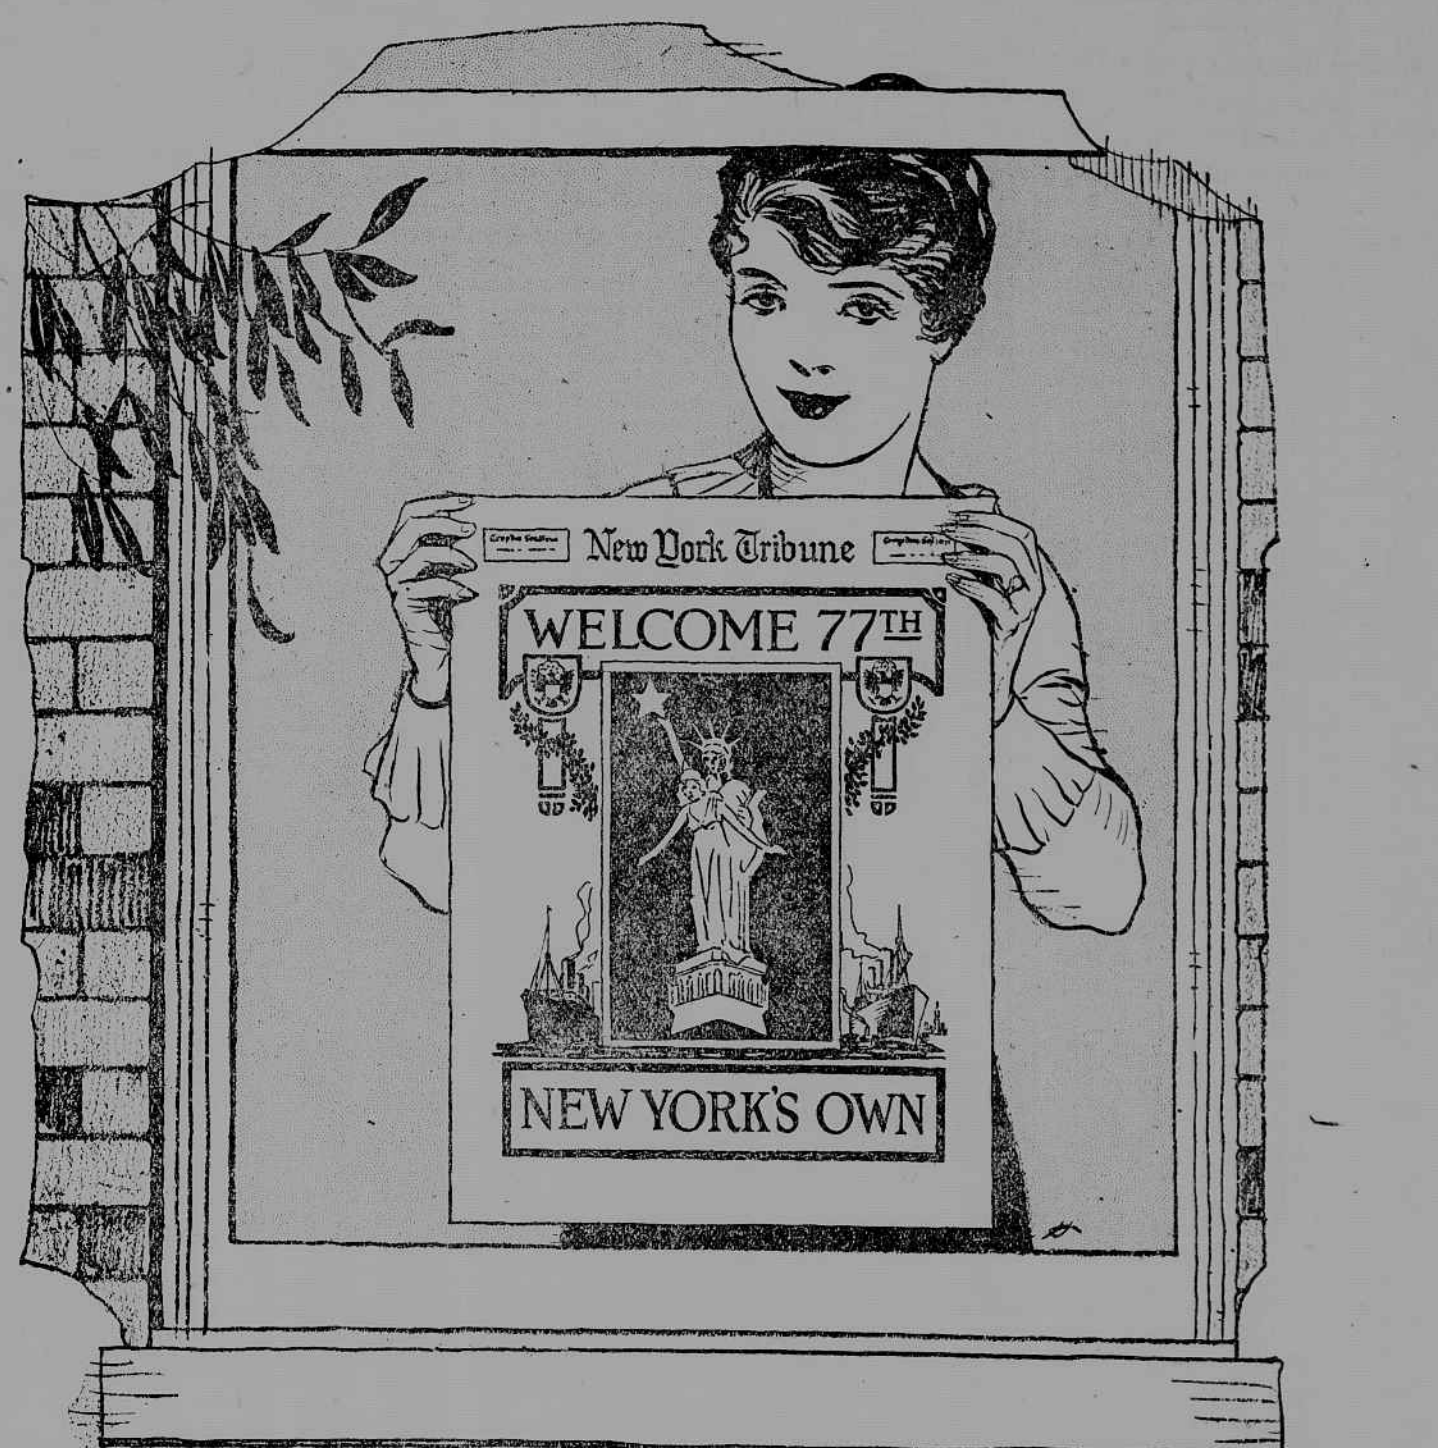

An announcement by the Navy Department says the navy experts are working in this direction, and that British naval experts also are interested in the endeavor.

"Camoufleurs of both navies," says the announcement, "are agreed that just as it was possible to elude the German U-boats by means of a design that gave a deceptive impression of the true course which a vessel was steering, so it is possible to minimize the danger of vessels coming together on days of poor visibility."—Washington Star.

Flanges Popular in Millinery

Flanges of silk or straw on the rims of summer hats are said to be finding favor among the women of the country. The flange match in color the crown or trimming on the hat. They are used on both straw and fabric hats.
